For over 30 years, Fear No Music has helped modernize Portland's artistic landscape while building a meaningful legacy of positive social impact. The organization is incredibly proud to announce that it has moved to a donation-based ticketing model in both live and virtual formats, furthering its mission-driven commitment to accessibility.

“Creativity doesn't occur in a vacuum, and it's important to recognize and celebrate not only a composer's exceptional work, but the ecosystem of influence and support that nurtures such work. We're excited to underscore this important component of the process for our audiences this season.”

— Kenji Bunch, Artistic Director
